

I have been an XM listner since August 2002. I have preach to all my family and friends about XM radio. I have truly enjoyed listen to the music I want to hear when I want to hear without all the commericals. Now that XM provide the indepth weather and traffic information I can really use versus the quick 15 second updates that the local radio stations provide.